She often skips her Zoology class. She once writes an article for her college magazine where she says that sometimes she hear voices from the future. Stephen, the professor of Physics reads the article and discusses this with his wife Isabella. Isabella says Amelia was her patient, who is suffering from blood phobia. This was the reason why she skips Zoology lab and dissection class. She was admitted in her hospital after she fainted in the cafeteria, while having ice-cream with her friends Rosemary, Merlin, Prince, and Neil. Stephen painfully realizes he knew Amelia, years ago, and he was the sole reason and cause for her mental illness. Feeling terribly guilty of his past, he approaches his friend Zachariah John, a scientist. Zachariah lives with his only daughter Zarina. Zachariah helps Stephen to travel back in time and correct his mistake he committed unknowingly. Stephen goes to the past in the time-machine, changes his past, and then returns to the future. Was he able to solve everything? How has the future changed once he altered his timeline? Did he ever wish the future to happen that way? Read to know more of this amazing time-travel scientific fiction story.
