Excerpt from Early Scenes in Church History: Eight Book of the Faith-Promoting Series Many deaths have occurred within the last few years among the veteran members of our Church. Numbers of persons have recently passed away who were connected with the Church during the early years of its existence, and whose lives were filled with scenes and incidents of the most inter esting nature. Their wonderful experience so far as known is appreciated by their intimate friends, in whose memories it is embalmed, but it will hereafter only be known as tradition. For, as a rule, they have left no written testimony or record of their lives to show to future generations what they have seen or passed through. We have scarcely ever heard of the death of such a person without a feeling of regret that the impor tant scenes of which he was a witness while living were not better known, and that a definite and accurate account of them had not been written before his death. A short time since we conceived the idea of publishing a volume of the...
