

A Really Good Man

By Michael Roth

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Really Good Man tells the story of a life well lived. It spans the entire lifetime of Michael Benjamin Golden from the moment of his conception until his death at the age of 87. Born into a loving family in PART I, Michael experiences a time of innocence as his life begins to take shape. Growing up within the Jewish faith, he develops a special bond with his grandfather which culminates with Michael becoming a man at the age of thirteen on the day of his Bar Mitzvah. As he matures into a young man in Part II, it is a time in Michael s life when all of his dreams come true. Having become engaged to the love of his life, Michael s most fervent wish is about to be fulfilled. Then on the day before his wedding in Part III, the reality of Michael s life becomes almost more than he can bear. He begins to question G-d, religion, and even his own existence. To seek answers, Michael embarks on a quest to determine the...
