It s long on substance, as readers of Peter Bernstein have come to expect of his work. --Charles Froland, Managing Director Stanford Investment Management Company Once upon a time, Wall Street lived off nice little homilies like buy low and sell high and don t put all your eggs in one basket. But investors can no longer depend on such well-worn proverbs. Today, the winners on Wall Street employ a body of theory that transforms logic, psychology, and statistical sophistication into a powerful package of systematic principles for successful investing. This body of theory is the investor s survival kit in a...
