After a night of suspense, pain and frightful happenings-almost dying-Kelly Price files for a protective order. She believes that this order will give her some breathing room and the ability to feel safe. Sadly her thinking is flawed. Someone wants her dead and no matter what she does, she never seems able to escape her new life-a life full of fear and danger! At first she thought the attacker was her husband Eric, but as she begins to connect the dots, she finds that it could be anyone. Imagination dances with reality as some of the situations Kelly finds herself in are taken straight from the authors life. Will Kelly find out who is trying to kill her before it is too late An excerpt from To Hide from Death I wont tell anyone Eric, I promise she pleaded choking on her tears and shortness of breath. The pain was fierce. Kelly managed to kick free of Eric, his fingers digging deep into her ankles as she retrieved them from his grasp. She made it back to the kitchen. She reached for the phone on the kitchen wall in desperate hopes of calling 911. As her trembling hands punched the numbers on the keypad, he ripped the phone cord from the wall. Hes going to kill me and theres no one who can save me now thought Kelly. God, please let me get out of here alive she silently prayed. . . This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
