Excerpt: .will be desirable, in order to verify the technical work and aid in the accounting. In order to facilitate the selling and buying of ore, public sampling and ore-purchasing companies have been established. Such a company acts as a disinterested part between buyer and seller, sampling the ore for a fixed charge per ton. PRACTICE AT CRIPPLE CREEK, COLO. As an example of how transactions in ore are conducted, the practice at Cripple Creek, Colo., may be cited. The shipper who sends his ore under contract to a milling company has the right to sample his ore in any of the public sampling works at his own expense. He may then either sell the ore to the sampler, who buys it under the milling company s contract rates, or he may reconsign it to the milling company direct, where it is again sampled, the...
