Strawberry Stables - A Forever Promise is the first book in the Strawberry Stables series that chronicles the stories of three couples as they fall in love at Strawberry Stables. As soon as Bethany Carson felt she was getting over the death of her fiancé, her mother dies. Now her long lost father arrives to offer her a safe haven in Florida to recuperate and consider the possibility of offering her father forgiveness. She accepts the hospitality of the Garrison family, her father's employer; it seems like a peaceful place to relax and gather her thoughts. That is until she comes face to face with Brady Garrison. The magnetism between them makes her realize that this will not be a peaceful place to relax and gather her thoughts at all. Brady is not shy about sharing the intense desire he feels for her or the fact that he isn't into long term relationships. Will the fire that has ignited between them convince Brady that just maybe he is ready for a forever kind of promise? Will Bethany realize that her future didn't die with her fiancé? Excerpt: You look so beautiful right now, the words flowed out of his mouth before he was able to stop them. Ah, thank you, she wasn't sure how to respond. She chose not to tell him that he was looking extremely good to her at the moment also. You really do, he lifted his fingers to brush stray hairs from her face. Words would not form in her throat, not that she had any idea what to say. She felt herself being swept away in the depths of his dark eyes. His fingers were...
