Outskirts Press, United States, 2010. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The world is going to Hell in the year 2010-2026 or is it? Four brothers from Brooklyn who go through an unfortunate accident reemerge 20 years later with no memory of their past or family. The only things that they know are their names, and that the four of them are brothers. While they try to find out just who they are as individuals, they discover that they must protect the citizens of New York City from the devils of the underworld. They were not given a choice in the matter. Hell has opened their gates wide, and NYC will experience inevitable doom, unless these four heroes fight the overwhelming odds. Fortunately, they also discover they have amazing powers of darkness inside their souls. They have the power of gods and can nearly do anything! However, their phenomenal gifts come with a horrible price. Those powers of darkness are cursed, and while carrying that power, they must deal with the violent and relentless attack of a malevolent shadow demon that they cannot run or hide from. The demon knows where they are and can sadistically punish them at any time! In addition, the darkness is growing inside each of them - slowly turning them into true creatures of the night. But, as they grow stronger, so does the shadow demon! The brothers cannot refuse the power, as it has bonded to their souls. To make matters worse, they must hide what they are from their love interests, who are each trying to find out why the brothers are acting so mysterious. The brothers realize quickly that they will never be able to live a normal life. They also realize that their...
