Burnishing that exquisite attraction into consistent happiness and emotional fulfillment that lasts a lifetime while raising a blended family is the challenge. Two strangers, each with children, meet in a divorce support group and the magic starts. This book is not filled with car chases and planted bombs but with the everyday intricacies of maintaining that first love and techniques for raising a blended family. As the five daughters grow, they bring issues to be solved, and their choices and heartaches become a part of the family fabric. This second-time-around couple chooses to hold hands tightly while they encircle their children, resulting in a family that finally seems to blend. When love lives, and it does here, it reflects the deepest, most tender secrets of the individuals. Yes, it speaks of the divine. Read to see if A Bird and the Dragon do meet their challenge.
