

Ice Bear: The Arctic World of Polar Bears (Hardback)

By Steven Kazlowski

Mountaineers Books, United States, 2010. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Ice Bear: The Arctic World of Polar Bears is a stunning collection of photographs by acclaimed polar bear photographer Steven Kazlowski. Featuring mostly never-before-published images, this simple yet evocative book explores the polar bear's Arctic home and life cycle. Playful cubs, hungry boars, and intimidating sows - Kazlowski's photographs capture this fascinating species in all its beautiful and fearsome glory. More than 100 full-colour images reveal the polar bear's world, as well as the entire Arctic landscape: rugged ice floes, magical aurora borealis, walrus, seals, Arctic foxes and rabbits, beluga whales, and a variety of birds including the snowy owl. Kazlowski also captures the Inuit people and their culture in which the polar bear plays a significant part. The photographs are complemented by a short and informative essay by polar bear expert Ian Stirling that portrays the natural history of the polar bear - its behaviour, diet and prey, unique features, and habitat - as well as its status as an endangered species. For more than ten years Steven Kazlowski has followed and photographed the magnificent white bear, from Herschel Island in the...
